

We are opposed to the telephone federal consumer protection act as it is proposed and feel that the Wisconsin telephone consumer protection act should stand as it is currently.